Warrior's Wish Foundation enhances the lives of United States Military Veterans and their families who are battling a life-limiting illness. This Spring, Warrior's Wish Foundation is getting lots of publicity from Patriot Walk USA. 24 year old Mark Klodzinski will be burning through some sneakers as he walks over 4,000 miles across the United States. He hopes to raise $1 million for Warrior's Wish Foundation. Mark has arrived in Washington DC, where he's been met by Fox News (which will cover the rest of his journey). From the Nation's Capitol he will head to Bristow, then around the country. You can follow his journey at <http://patriotwalkusa.org> and on Facebook.
